GEAR RECS

- Wawona 6 Tent - North

Face makes some amazing tents. The tent pictured is the 6-person model, and it's super spacious with a large vestibule in the front. Due to its size, it's definitely best suited for front-country camping.

- Camping Bowl - Collapsible camping bowls are incredibly versatile, reusable throughout the trip, and can double as a bowl or plate when needed.

- Camping Stove: A Eureka or Coleman camping stove is an excellent choice. All you need is butane and a lighter. These stoves are highly compact and easy to use while camping

- Spork - The best utensil for camping. Can be used as a spoon, fork, or knife!

RECIPES

Camping trips are all about simplicity and enjoying the outdoors—and that includes your meals! These easy and tasty recipes have been a staple on every trip. They are designed with minimal perishable ingredients, so they'll stay fresh while traveling. Enjoy!

TRIPPER STEW

Ingredients:

- 2 cans of tomato soup
- 2 cans of mixed vegetables (with liquid)
- 1 can of corn (drained)
- Instant mashed potatoes (whole potatoes without seasoning)
- Veggie burgers

Instructions:

1. Pour the tomato soup into a large pot and bring to a simmer over the campfire or stovetop.
2. Add the canned mixed vegetables (with liquid) and the drained can of corn to the pot.
3. Once the mixture begins to boil, stir in the instant mashed potatoes until the stew reaches your desired consistency.
4. Season generously with your favorite spices (salt, pepper, garlic powder, paprika, etc.).
5. Grill the veggie burgers on a separate pan or grill.
6. Serve the stew in bowls and top with pieces of grilled veggie burgers for added flavor and texture.

Tripper Stew might sound unconventional, but it's a beloved camping staple for its simplicity and tastiness!

PEANUT BUTTER NOODLES

Ingredients:

- Rice noodles
- Vegetables (e.g., broccoli, water chestnuts, onions)
- Peanut butter
- Soy sauce

Instructions:

1. Heat a pan over medium heat and sauté the vegetables until tender.
2. While the vegetables cook, boil water and prepare the rice noodles according to the package instructions.
3. In a small bowl, mix together peanut butter, soy sauce, and a splash of water to create a creamy sauce. Adjust the proportions to suit your taste.
4. Once the vegetables and noodles are cooked, combine them in the pan.
5. Pour the peanut butter sauce over the mixture and toss until evenly coated.

MEXICAN QUESADILLAS

Ingredients:

- Tortillas
- 2 bell peppers (any color)
- 1 onion
- 1 can of black beans (drained)
- 1 can of corn (drained)
- Salsa
- Shredded Cheese

Instructions:

1. Sauté the bell peppers and onion in a pan until softened and slightly charred.
2. Lay out the tortillas and sprinkle a layer of shredded cheese on one half of each tortilla.
3. Add the cooked vegetables, black beans, and corn on top of the cheese.
4. Fold the tortilla in half and cook in a pan over medium heat until the cheese melts and the tortilla is golden brown.
5. Serve with salsa on the side, and let everyone customize their quesadillas with additional toppings.
